Don't worry if you can't answer everything, information can be changed if needed in the future.

You'll be sent a contract before the convention next year that you'll need to sign and return to confirm your table registration. If, at that time, you don't agree with terms of the contract, you may request a full refund in exchange for canceling the reservation.

All requests for table cancellations must be received by August 1, 2010.

Don't forget your memberships to go with the table reservation. A membership is required to be issued a table. If you act now, you can get your membership for only $35.
